SUNDAY LAW IS STILL IN FORCE

A Motion to Repeal it is Defeated.

Long Buried Ordinance Dug Up Yesterday Afternoon and Mayor Stafford on Tie Continues the Law—Some Amendments Proposed Regarding Shifting of Freight—Other Business Before Aldermen Yesterday Afternoon.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Board of Aldermen the long buried ordinance repealing the famous Bain Sunday ordinance was ressurrected only to be defeated by a close margin, Mayor Stafford voting to continue the remainder of the ordinance in force. However, there is strong talk that some amendments will be tacked on to the original. The vote in favor of the repeal was ayes Albright, Clendenin and King; noes Ellington, Glascock and Smith. Mayor Stafford voted no.

The ordinance was formally passed on December 22, 1909, on which date it became a law. At that time it prohibited the sale of ice cream, all kinds of drinks, fruits, magazines, etc., at any hour on Sunday. The sale of cigars, cigarettes and tobaccos was permitted until 10 a. m. on Sunday. The shifting of cars was prohibited, excepting passenger coaches and cars of perishible freight. The delivery of ice cream in bulk was allowed until 10 a. m.

Soon there after there was a kick by the ice cream men, who declared that they could not deliver to their trade before 10 o'clock and asked an extension of time. This resulted in an amendment allowing the sale of cream at all hours on Sundays. In the early spring the aldermen were asked to amend the ordinance so soft drinks could be sold at Lindley Park, the ordinance covering that resort the same as it did stores on South Elm. The amendment was passed.

The druggists of the city then protested, declaring that this was rank class legislation. That the aldermen had no power to make an ordinance apply to one section of the territory under their control and not apply to all sections. Their petition was signed by a large number of citizens. After the matter had been debated at several meetings, Alderman Albright championing the contentions of the druggists and Alderman Glascock fighting the repeal of the remainder of the ordinance, Alderman Albright on June 24 offered an ordinance repealing such sections of the original ordinance as then remained in force. In offering this ordinance he stated that he was in favor of a strict Sunday ordinance, but considered it a rank injustice to allow the sale of ice cream and not allow a milk chocolate to be sold, both being composed of the same materials, but prepared in a different manner. Alderman Glascock contended that ice cream was a portion of a meal and therefore was altogether different from a milkshake. Several ministers appeared before the board and urged that the ordinance be allowed to stand. After hearing the discussion they raised no further protest against the repealing of the ordinance, but expressed the hope that a better Sabbath observance ordinance would be passed by the board.

At several meetings the matter was brought up, but action was deferred for some reason or the other and the ordinance was apparently dead. Yesterday Alderman Albright insisted that the ordinance be acted upon as the matter had been hanging fire long enough. An effort was made to adjourn before taking action in order to allow Alderman Glascock to prepare an amendment, but this was voted down. The motion to adopt the repealing ordinance was then voted on with the above result. Whether Alderman Glascock will introduce an amendment since the repeal ordinance was defeated is yet to be determined. The proposed amendment will, if passed, allow freight cars to be shifted until 6 a. m. and after 10 p. m. on Sundays.

Messrs. E. P. Wharton, L. J. Brandt, A. B. High, G. S. Bradshaw and others appeared before the board and asked that an additional $500 be appropriated for the library, this sum to be used in the purchase of books. The members of the board expressed their willingness to contribute to the movement by private subscription, but stated that the city was financially unable to make the appropriation at present. The request was voted down. The committee stated that it would likely [illegible] before the board later when the city's finances were in better shape to renew the request. The annual appropriation for the library is $3,000.

Mr. [illegible] Taylor asked that the Southern Power Company be allowed to use the old reservoir of the city's in connection with the reservoir the company is now building, the city to take it back at any time. The request was granted on condition that the company keep the reservoir in good condition. It is a little run down at present, not being in use.

Several auto drivers were granted license to operate cars.

The quarterly report of the cemetery trustees was read and ordered spread upon the minutes.

The aldermanic committee, appointed some time ago to confer with the Playground Association, reported that the association wanted the city to lease to it a portion of Fisher park for not less than 20 years and to make an appropriation of not less than $1,000 for the care of the playground; also to allow the erection of a pavillion or house in the park for the use of the children. Action was deferred until the next meeting.

THE FISH COMMISSION

Members Are In Raleigh Preparing Report to Be Made to Legislature Regarding Fisheries.

Raleigh, Nov. 11.—The legislative fish commission appointed by the last legislature to carefully investigate the needs of the various fishing interests on the coast and along the coastal rivers and report to the 1911 legislature with a bill taking care of all the interests represented in an adequate and just manner, spent today here at work on the preparation of what they intend shall meet the requirements of the Legislature and give satisfaction to the fishermen. Each legislature for many years past has had a strenuous fight over proposed fish legislation and that at the last session was about the worst and it is to relieve the legislature of another such contest that the commission was appointed. The members have twice gone through the fishing sections and conferred with the various classes interested in the industry and inspected the work in the height of the season. Now they have gotten together here to prepare the bill. With them in close consultation are such men as Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist; State Fish Commissioner W. M. Webb; Dr. H. F. Moore, chief of the United States Fisheries division; W. E. Morgan, director of the government fisheries at Edenton. All the members of the legislative commission except Senator E. L. Travis are here, he not having suciently recovered from the nearly fatal wound he sustained when he and Representative Paul Kitchin were shot down on the streets of Scotland Neck. The commission will probably make public the proposed bill before the legislature meets so that there may be opportunity to hear any who desire to contend for changes. The members of the commission are Hon. W. C. Newland, lieutenant governor and president of the Senate, Speaker of the House A. W. Graham, Granville; Senator Barringer, Greensboro; Senator Travis, Halifax; R. A. Doughton, Alleghany; J. H. Currie, Cumberland; Harry Stubbs, Martin county, members of the lower house.

A WRETCH IN THE TOILS

Aiding In Putting Him There, Mayor Stafford Is Thanked by Virginia Mayor.

Mayor Stafford yesterday received the following letter from Mayor W. L. Rice, of Bristol, Va.:

It is with great pleasure that I inform you of the capture of J. E. Hampton. We located him in Raleigh, applied to Gov. Mann for requisition papers, received them at once and forwarded same to your Governor who telegraphed us that they were granted. Our sergeant is now in Raleigh and will bring Hampton to Bristol tomorrow. I wish to thank you for the interest you manifested and for your aid in his capture."

Hampton was wanted for the crime of seduction under promise of marriage and this dreadful offence seems to have been committed by him under very aggravating circumstances. The man was represented as being engaged in the insurance business. Mayor Stafford and Chief of Police Neelley at once took an active interest in the case, tracing Hampton to Raleigh where he was arrested.

It's always the other peopl e who should be satisfied with their lot.

MASS MEETING FOR FOOTBALL

This Afternoon's Game is Boomed.

Pupils Surround Speakers in Playground As the Latter Urge the Football Team On To Deeds of Prowess—The Locals Counselled To Be Gentlemen Whether They Win Or Lose—Team Will Line Up In Excellent Condition.

Yesterday afternoon an enthusiastic mass meeting of the students of the Greensboro High School was held in the school playground. The students flocked to hear the speakers in such numbers that since none of the rooms could accommodate them, an open air meeting was held. Great enthusiasm was aroused for this afternoon's football contest with the U. N. C. Freshmen. This was demonstrated by the enthusiastic cheering of the newly organized but thoroughly efficient High School Rooters' Club, which, led by the leader, Miss Myrtle Preyer, repeatedly cheered the team and the speakers.

Mr. A. H. King, principal of the High School, was acting chairman of the meeting which he had called in view of the fact that this afternoon's contest will be the most gruelling of the season. The speakers, of whom there were five beside himself, were introduced in fitting terms by him. Before introducing Mr. John N. Wilson who made the first talk, Mr. King announced that a teachers' meeting would be held this afternoon at 3:30 at Cone Park and that expected all the teachers to attend and bring their respective classes with them.

Mr. Wilson's inspiring talk was addressed to the team and by urging them to win the game both for their own and their loyal supporters' sakes, prepared the way for Mr. David Stern. That gentleman spoke of the appreciation of Greensboro's citizens, who, he said, are deeply grateful for the manly fight which their boys were making for the honor of the town. He urged the team to win the game if possible, but, if impossible, not to resort to any play other than that fair and square game which they have always played.

Mr. King next introduced Mr. Wiley H. Swift, the former superintendent. He was received by vigorous applause.

Mr. Swift said in part: "Boys, the Freshmen are coming here to win. They would rather down us than any other Freshman or High School team in the State, because we have defeated two Freshmen teams in former years. We must have the game if it can be won by that same square playing which has always characterized Greensboro's boys. In all of our games for the past five years no underhand trick of our fellows has been noticed because it was not there to be seen. Although the outcome of the game may be in doubt, I have no fears regarding the gentlemanly deportment of the team while on the field."

Dr. J. L. Mann, Mr. Swift's successor, said that the Freshmen must say after the game, "Well, didn't that crowd of gentlemen beat us up brown?" He said that the spirit a boy gains in showing himself a man on the football field will aid him through life.

Mr. Clem G. Wright, an ex-Carolina star, added his word of encouragement. The team will line-up in excellent condition today. This week has been one of unusually hard practice and the condition of the team and the reportory of their plays will show the result.

Chrysanthemum Show.

The Chrysanthemum show was well patronized yesterday and last night and altogether the event was a decided success. The collections of flowers were greatly admired by a large number of ladies and several men. However, the majority of the men visited the rooms for the purpose of getting a turkey dinner or any oyster stew and the ladies were kept busy attending to wants along this line.

Municipal Court.

The only case in Municipal court yesterday morning was one against John H. Saunders, colored, who was charged with disorderly conduct. He was fined $10 and costs.

Young ladies, take a look at our new Velvet, Suede and Cravenette shoes, high heels, short vamps, very stylish, sold at $3.50 and $4.00. Thacker & Brockmann.

FREIGHT RATE DISCRIMINATION

A Matter of Much Interest to Greensboro.

Merchants' Association Decides To Take Matter Up With Highest Officials of Southern and See If Relief Will Not Be Granted—Better Express Service—The Lighting Service—Campaign For New Members—Other Business.

The most important matter that came up at last night's meeting of the Greensboro Merchants' Association was regarding freight rate discrimination. It was pointed out that enterprises are turning the city down constantly on account of the exhorbitant rates as compared with those charged other cities, and it was the sense of the body that something ought to be done.

Mr. J. M. Hendrix said the association was going at the matter in the wrong way; that the members could discuss and "cuss" all they pleased, but the railway officials would never know of the needs of the city along this line, or rather would not be brought to realize how detrimental such rates are to the city's prosperity. He favored facing the higher officials of the road and state the situation, showing that new enterprises could be brought here but for the high rates. As it is an enterprise will go to a city where there are low rates and the Southern will get only a share of the business whereas if the rates here were reasonable the concern would locate here and the company would get the entire business.

This idea met with the hearty approval of the association and President Bernau was commissioned to write Mr. E. H. Coapman, general manager, a letter explaining the situation and asking him to meet with the association, or its officers, the first time he was in the city. It was also decided to go before any of the higher officials the first time they visit the city and state the true facts in the case, urging them to reduce the rates on articles that will likely be made in the city especially.

The lighting service was brought up and discussed. The merchants are quite anxious that Elm street be better lighted before Christmas as dark streets are detrimental to trade, they state. It was stated that the Public Service Company was ready to order the lamps the minute they ascertain the number wanted so a committee, consisting of President Bernau and Mr. T. A. Walker, was appointed to wait on the Water & Light Commission this morning and see if the order cannot be placed at once in order that Elm street, especially, may be better lighted for the holiday trade.

Another matter that was discussed at length was the custom of the banks to charge exchange on checks given on banks in other cities. It was stated that Burlington banks and banks in other towns are coming here and soliciting business, agreeing to collect such checks free of charge. And it was pointed out that in several instances individuals have cashed checks without paying exchange. The merchants stated that they hated to charge an outside customer exchange when they were coming here from other towns, bringing money into the city. Charlotte and Durham do not charge exchange, it was stated. The attorney, Mr. Williams, was instructed to send the bankers a request that they discontinue the custom of charging regular depositors who carry standing accounts exchange, as it tends to keep money out of the city, and to invite the bankers to meet with the association at its next meeting and give reasons, if any they have, why this practice should be continued.

The secretary was instructed to ascertain the views of Guilford's representatives in the legislature regarding the repeal of the homestead exemption and to secure their assistance in passing a law bringing the matter before the people for a popular vote. Copies of this request will be sent the State Merchants' Association.

Mr. Garland Daniel was before the association with a proposition to hold a pure food show in the auditorium at an early date. Each merchant was to issue a card containing his firm name with each $1 purchase and the holder could use said cards as tickets to the show. The association would present to each merchant his cards taken up and he was to pay 10 cents each. The matter was referred to a committee to investigate and report at the next meeting.

The express service was then taken up. It was stated that there is only one express a day from Washington. This causes a huge quantity of express to come in at once, congesting the affairs in the local office and preventing the office to get the express delivered as promptly as it should. This will be taken up with the express authorities.

The final topic for discussion was "Good of the Association." A campaign for new members is being waged at present and some of the members are meeting success. It was stated that one of the reasons usually given by a person who is not a member is that it will not benefit him. Said one member, "If those members were to attend one of our meetings and learn that we deal with matters that will benefit every merchant in the city, whether a member or not, they would not hesitate to join. A number of merchants think that the object of the association, or the chief object, is to get out a rating book and work to keep people from deadbeating us." It was decided to make an active canvass during the next few weeks and each member was constituted a committee of one to see his brother merchants and explain to them the work of the association, touching especially the fact that the association is primarily working for those things that will be of the greatest benefit to Greensboro, believing that anything that will benefit the city will in turn benefit the merchants. During the campaign the membership fee was suspended.

THE GAME ENDORSED

Letters From Well Known Citizens In Behalf of This Afternoon's Football Game.

This afternoon at Cone park the High School football team will play the Freshmen team from the University. The management of the team has secured for publication the following letters which are self-explanatory:

Dear Capt. Coffin: I note with pleasure that you have arranged a game of football with the Freshman team of the University of North Carolina. Perhaps no citizen in Greensboro is more interested in the success of the Greensboro High School ahtletic teams than I, since I, for two years, was identified with the school as coach of the football team. I shall be there to see you, win or lose, play a good clean game of football. Here's luck to the captain and his team.

E. D. KUYKENDALL.

Capt. W. E. Coffin, Jr., Greensboro, N. C.

My Dear Sir: It is with pleasure that I note the game arranged between our high school team and the University of N. C. Freshmen, for Saturday, November 12. I am addressing you this letter to assure you of my support in all matters pertaining to pure athletics, and to assure you of my assistance in any way that you may need it. I hope a large crowd of our citizens will turn out to encourage the sport, and for the purpose also of "rooting" you on to victory. With assurances of my support, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
L. J. BRANDT.

Mr. A. H. King.

Dear Sir: It has been said that "the boy without a play ground is father to the man without a job." Be this literally true or not the duty of the citizen to recognize, encourage and support clean outdoor athletics is beyond controversy. I sincerely hope that you will have a large crowd Saturday afternoon to encourage the High School Athletic Association and that its football team will win against the University Freshmen. I shall be there to throw up my hat for them.

Yours truly,
JOHN N. WILSON.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Enjoyable Event At Home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Rankin Last Evening.

Last evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Rankin, east of the city, was the scene of a most enjoyable event, the occasion being the celebration of Miss Caroline Rankin's thirteenth birthday.

The Rankin home had been beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and red chrysanthemums.

The feature of the evening was an autumn leaf contest, which proved the most interesting game the young people had participated in in some time. Mr. Herman Wilson and Miss Eunice Donnell were the successful contestants and were awarded the prize, a box of candy. During the evening fruits and other refreshments were served.

A large number of Miss Rankin's friends were present and the occasion was enjoyed immensely by each one present.

HOUSE WARMING AT G. F. COLLEGE

New Music Building Formally Opened.

Large Number of Friends of the College Present—Warming Given by Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Kraft—A Delightful Musical Program Followed by Courses of Refreshments—Building Equipped With Handsome Furnishings.

A large number of the friends of Greensboro Female College attended the house warming given last evening by Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson and Mr. Kraft, the occasion being the formal opening of the new music building. A number of out of town people were here for the warming. The hours were from 8:30 to 10:30, but many lingered after that hour to take a last glance through the handsomely equipped studios.

The first feature of the evening was the rendition of an artistic musical program, in which the members of the musical faculty, Misses Mitchell and Neff participated. The program would have done credit to any concert and the several numbers brought ou the fine talent of the musical faculty of this noted institution. Prof. F. W. Kraft, director, had charge of the program. Miss Mitchell, teacher of expression, and Miss Neff, the gifted lady vocalist, captivated the audience with beautiful selections. Messrs. Robeson, Roy and Lahser, the musical trio, were at their best, it seemed, last night and their numbers were enjoyed immensely.

Souvenirs, rare gems of art, the work of Miss Porter, art teacher, were given to each one present.

A delicious two course luncheon was served by the senior music class, the college colors being observed in the refreshments.

Those who enjoyed the occasion were the college trustees, the Methodist ministers of the city and their wives, the college faculty and the officers of the Alumnae Association.

The music building is a handsome two story structure, facing College Place. It contains nine studios, all fitted with handsome and modern equipment. In each studio are pictures and busts of the famous composers. The pianos are the Mason & Hamlin and Conover grand. The building was erected at a cost of about $10,000 and adds considerably to the beauty of the college campus. Additional room has long been needed in the music department, which has grown rapidly during the past few years. All the music classes will meet in the building in the future.

PARLAND-NEWHALL CO.

Strong Company of Entertainers Here Next Tuesday Evening.

The Parland-Newhall Company has for five years been a "head liner" in the Lyceum. They have a stronger personnel this year than ever, and undoubtedly will eclipse all former records. By the acquisition of Mr. John F. McCarthy, violin soloist, late of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipsic, Germany, the organization has been greatly strengthened. His solos add the finishing touch to a program absolutely unique and surprisingly beautiful.

This company of entertainers will appear at the Smith Memorial building next Tuesday evening in the second number of the Greensboro Lyceum Course. The program will begin at eight o'clock. Season tickets are still on sale and can be secured from Mr. E. Poole.

Of the Parland-Newhall Company William A. Caldwell, of the Y. M. C. A. of New York, says:

I take great pleasure in giving the strongest possible recommendation. They keep the audience in an uproar from start to finish, excepting during the serious musical numbers which serve to show their artistic ability.

To the Red Men.

You are requested to attend a called meeting on the night of the 12th inst. for the purpose of initiating two palefaces. A. M. Kellam, chief of records, Mineota Tribe, No. 52.

Mr. C. A. Atkins, of the Odell Hardware Company, day before yesterday lost his watch. As a result of a "lost" as in The Telegram he found it yesterday. The Telegram finds the lost.

Saved at St. Winnifred Hospital

(San Francisco Bulletin.)

The physicians in Honolulu could do nothing for U. S. Deputy Marshal Winters and he gave them up in despair and came to San Francisco to see if there was any physican here who could cure an extreme case of chronic Bright's Disease. He had two uraemic convulsions, was almost bursting with dropsy, and, after fighting the disease for two years, was at the end of the way. The physician he consulted in this city told him that chronic Nephritis is now a curable disease and that he would probably recover. He sent the patient to the St. Winnifred Hospital, put him on the new treatment for chronic kidney disease, Fulton's Renal Compound, and proceeded to aid it in ways that the skilled practitioner understands. In four months Winters went back to the Islands perfectly well.—San Francisco Bulletin.

We sent for the treatment given the patient referred to in the St. Winnifred Hospital with such remarkable results and have it in stock for patients here. Chronic Kidney Disease, including Bright's Disease and Diabetes, are now curable. Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

ALAN PINKERTON HELD FOR SLAPPING ERPORTER.

He and Supt. Duhain Paroled for Trial on Charge of Assault on a World Man.

New York World.

Alan Pinkerton was araigned before Justice Charles F, Gittens at Hempstead yesterday on a charge of asault preferred by Romolo Fanciulli, a reporter of The World, who alleges in his complaint that he was assaulted by Pinkerton while entering an automobile which was one of the official cars at the recent Belmont Park aviation meet. The car was about to start across the field to the scene of the accident when Grahame-White was injured by his monoplane falling while in full light.

Mr. Fanciulli alleges that he was invited to enter the car, and that he was pushed from the running board by Pinkerton, whom he afterward took to task. One word led to another, when Pinkerton slapped the reporter in the face and received in return a punch on his left eye and found himself on the ground with Fanciulli on top of him.

Several of Pinkerton's assistants rushed up and pulled the reporter off, in doing which, it is alleged, another assault occurred. Before Fanciulli could again get at the detective he was rushed away to another part of the field, and Pinkerton, well satisfied with what he had received, went to the clubhouse.

The affair occurred on the last day of the meet. Mr. Fanciulli swore out a warrant for Pinkerton and Clovis Duhain, his superintendent, four days later, but owing to both men being at Baltimore, it could not be served until Tuesday, the men appearing yesterday before Justice Gittens.

Both Pinkerton and Duhain pleaded not guilty. Duhain was paroled until Nov. 22 for trial, and Pinkerton was paroled until Nov. 27. It is expected that a crowd of Meadow Brook cross country riders will be on hand to witness the trial. A number of prominent men will be witnesses for Fanciulli, among them Clifford B. Harmon, Lorillard Spencer, Grahame-White and Jas. Radley.

OUTLOOK OFFICE GLOOMY.

Comments on the Result to Be Made in the Roosevelt-Abbott Magazine Exclusively.

New York Times.

Gloom of the kind that can be seen, felt and cut with a dull knife cloaked the Outlook office yesterday. Gloom's boon companion was an unbreakable silence on all subjects pertaining to politics and the election.

Colonel Roosevelt did not come to his office. In the room no footfall was heard save that of the girl who wiped the fast-gathering dust from his desk. He has not been in town, Mr. Townsend, the literary editor, said, since last Monday, and Mr. Townsend did not know when he would be at his desk again.

Mr. Townsend was also the source of the information that Dr. Lyman Abbott and Lawrence Abbott had been at the office in the morning, but had left early to return no more until this morning. In their absence Mr. Townsend was asked if the editors of Outlook would make any remarks on the result of the election. He replied that at a meeting of the editors in the morning it had been decided not to give any statements to the newspapers, but to say all the editors had to say on the subject through the columns of the Outlook.

This was not intended as any reflection on the papers, he said. The editors decided, however, that the Outlook was the preferred channel for telling the world what they thought of the result.

But the world will have to wait a week. Mr. Townsend said the Outlook for this week had already come from the press, though not yet on sale, and that it contained not one word of ante-election or post-election comment, and no editorial from Colonel Roosevelt's pen.

"Then the editors will have their say next week?"

Mr. Townsend thought they would.

"Colonel Roosevelt and the Outlook have said that they were making a fight for clean politics. Will they continue to fight?" was asked.

"I prefer not to be interviewed on that subject," he said.

When You Buy Sox—Think of Your Wife

Next time you buy sox remember this fact—your wife will appreciate "Holeproof." If you take common hose she will have to darn them every week. If you insist on "Holeproof" she will have no darning to do for six months.

It costs no more to get the genuine "Holeproof." Don't let anyone sell you an imitation—think how your wife will have to sit up nights for six months to keep them mended.

Insist on "Holeproof" and see how surprised and delighted your wife will be for the next half year.

FAMOUS Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

The makers have spent 31 years to reach this perfection in hosiery. So remember when others offer to imitate the guarantee they can't imitate the quality.

They pay 63 cents a pound for the best Egyptian and Sea Island cotton. Others often use common cotton at 12 cents a pound.

The yarn is 3-ply in the body and 6-ply in the heels, toes and knees. Others use 2-ply throughout. But you pay the same price for both.

"Holeproof" is shaped to fit the ankle as neatly as a glove fits the hand. The fabric is soft and comfortable—it is simply perfection in hosiery.

Ask our clerks to show you the hosiery. It comes in eleven colors for men, six for women and two for children. Prices from $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs. Come in and see it today.

HIS FRIENDS

He Entertained Them but Once

By DANIEL K. VON TROMP

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Having occasion to visit a little town nestling among the green hills of Vermont one autumn on a matter of business, I was walking, satchel in hand, from the station to the hotel of the place when I was accosted by a cheery man, who asked me if I was going to stop overnight in the town. Upon my telling him that such was my intention he said to me:

"I sometimes receive guests in my house and if you like will entertain you."

Not relishing a stay in the average country hotel, I concluded to go with the man. He led me to the handsomest house in the place. It had no appearance of being a hotel. Indeed, there was nothing public about it. I was shown to a bedroom containing every comfort and convenience. I arrived near the dinner hour and when I went down into the dining room found there only mine host and his family about a table at which there was but one vacant seat. My host introduced me to his wife and daughters and motioned me to the vacant chair.

Never was I more puzzled. I had been solicited, I supposed, by either a hotel runner or a landlord, yet I seemed to be in a private house. The conversation was general and was enlivened by a bottle of wine. This embarrassed me, for landlords are not used to furnishing wine unless duly ordered to be paid for. I had ordered no wine and did not know whether I would be permitted to return the host's civility by doing so. After dinner I spent a very pleasant evening with him and his family and at bedtime retired to my room.

I was given my breakfast the next morning alone, and, as nothing was said about remaining longer after I had eaten, I took up my satchel for departure. Each one of the family cordially bade me goodby, not one of them expressing a desire to see me again, though the eldest daughter's eyes sank to the floor at a pressure of the hand I gave her. I could not bring myself to call for a bill. I contented myself with expressing my thanks.

Going straight to the office of a man with whom I had business, I informed him of my adventure and asked if he could give me an explanation. He smiled and said:

"Have you read in the 'Arabian Nights' Entertainment' the story of the man who, disgusted with the selfishness of humanity, every evening invited a stranger to sup and remain the night with him and turned him away in the morning?"

"I have."

"You have been entertained by such a man."

"And I will not be admitted under his roof again?"

"No."

"We shall see about that. But tell me the story."

"Evan Thompson inherited the wealth of his father and grandfather. Evan was always very tender hearted. As soon as he came into his property he began to give it to any one who needed it. He never wasted a penny of it. Every cent was a blessing to whomsoever it was given. To condense the story, he gave away his whole patrimony, including the house in which he now lives. Not being satisfied to remain a poor man among those who had been his associates in prosperity, he went away and was not seen again here for ten years. Then he appeared one day ragged and forlorn looking. There was scarcely a person in the town who had not at some time been assisted by him. He applied to one after another for help. What assistance was given him was so trifling that it served him but for a brief period. Some of those he had helped to prosperity made him small loans, realizing that until they were paid he would not trouble them again. Some paid no attention whatever to his solicitations. And so, after he had asked for help from everybody and all had either refused him or put him where he could not well ask for more, he discovered that his former friends when they saw him coming would turn down a cross street before meeting him. Indeed, everybody wished he would go away again and stay away.

"He disappeared one morning, his absence being made manifest by his failing to call on a man who had promised to lend him a quarter. The man told others of the circumstance, and it soon got abroad that 'Seedy' Thompson, as he was called, had relieved the town of his presence. Then one day something happened. The owner of the Thompson homestead announced that he had sold it for twice what he gave for it. The next startler was the registry of the deed to the premises in the name of Evan Thompson. Lastly, one morning a maiden lady passed the Thompson house and reported that she had seen 'Seedy' Thompson himself sitting on the porch puffing a cigar. The end of it all was that Thompson was there with a wife and children.

"Thompson has told me that he never read the story in 'The Arabian Nights' Entertainment.' He seems to have hit upon the same method of procedure by coincidence. He will invite a stranger to stay at his house for one night, but will never receive the same person twice."

It was my good fortune to break his rule, but I did it through his eldest daughter. I married her.

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. London's new Lord Mayor is a prohibitionist. Hostility to King Alcohol is world-wide.

The Democrats carry the House by fifty and gain eight votes in the Senate. That in brief is the result of the election of Tuesday insofar as it affects Congress.

Just think of it! The Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey converted an eight thousand Republican majority into a 50,000 Democratic majority. Woodrow Wilson is evidently a much admired man in New Jersey. There probably never was before such a political upheaval as was that in Jersey.

It is said that President Taft is contemplating an early call of the new Congress with the view of embarrassing the Democratic House by putting the tariff problem right up to them without delay. Don't believe the Democratic House would be embarrassed one bit. But the President could hardly be expected to eat his own words of commendation for the present tariff.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, was mentioned for United States Senator, but he had the good sense to let it be known promptly that he didn't want it. It would be ridiculous to make a man of Murphy's attainments Senator. However, there's no discounting his ability as a political organizer and it occurs to us that Murphy acted pretty decently throughout the campaign. At any rate Democrats generally will be glad that he was decent enough not to aspire to the Senatorial toga.

Col. Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier Journal, says the Democrats do not want to think that they will have an easy job handling the tariff. In an editorial, after showing the justice of a tariff for revenue, he says:

But we have had nearly fifty years of a protective tariff. Hundreds of millions of money have been invested and are yet embarked upon the faith of this. Hundreds and thousands of people look to it for their prosperity and support. It cannot be precipitately withdrawn. If we are to change our policy from a protective system to a revenue system it must be done so gradually and with such regard for the business of the country, which stands greatly in need of rest, that the final transition shall be as the passing from one season to another, every interest warned beforehand and fully prepared.

Lot of wisdom in that. But we have confidence in the Democrats to present a tariff bill that will meet the demands of the millions who are clamoring for the necessities and conveniences of life at a lower cost with the modicum of necessary disturbance of business. But while this is true, there are Democrats in both the House and Senate that have got to stiffen up their backbone a bit by ceasing to make a monkey of themselves by cussing out the protective tariff as a whole and fighting tooth and nail for a protective tariff in particular.

The Democrats won on account of Republican inefficiency and disregard of promises. The Democrats will have to make good or they too will be retired. There is a growing number of voters who vote for the man, not the party. It follows that the party which hopes to succeed must put up good men, men who will be active and efficient in the public service and who will discharge their pre-election promises to the letter. In this connection, the Baltimore Sun well says:

In a speech to his neighbors and friends on Wednesday evening Woodrow Wilson said he thought he had been elected Governor because the people believed he was sincere in what he promised to do, and he impressed upon his hearers that sincerity was what was needed in public men. That is the demand from the public to which officials must hereafter measure up; the one quality without which all others will be vain and count for naught. For what shall it profit the people if in point of ability those in office tower like Saul of Tarsus, head and shoulders above their fellowmen, if that ability is not to be exercised in the interest of the people? What this country needs, and what this country is going to have, is men in office who go there not to serve their own or other selfish interests, but who look upon politics as the business of the community, and enter office with the same regard for the interests of the people and the same respect for honest and efficient action that they would carry into the service of a private business concern. The people of this country are becoming too well informed, are learning too much about their own wants and how to get them, to allow the insincere political self-seeker to have much longer lease of official life.

And the same thing might be said of the well-meaning public official without any definite conceptions of the obligations his office imposes upon him. There should be progress and improvement all along the line, in the small and circumscribed spheres of action, as well as in the wider ones. The self-seeking public official is no longer in demand, but neither is the public official who has any alliances calculated to impair his usefulness and injure his party.

MAXIMS OF WILSON

Political Wisdom From the Life of the Scholar Politician.

Woodrow Wilson, in New York World.

I have a business mind; I must have meat to put my teeth into before I can talk.

The job of a statesman today is the welding together in one organism of the interests that are concerned in the common welfare.

The older I grow the less interest I have in general propositions, and the more I find myself turning toward concrete solutions of the problems about which these propositions are built.

We are getting tired of those who shout that things are all wrong, but we must not forget the debt we owe the men who shouted us awake.

It will be my pleasure and my privilege to serve the people of New Jersey, not as the head of a party but as the servant of all classes and all interests.

Rational and respectful interpretation of the Constitution is our need today.

The man we need, the man we must develop, is he who will make the will to do right square with the standards the law sets up.

Man's Weakness.

Chicago Record-Herald.

"Are you one of those, she asked, "who think man is woman's superior?"

"No, indeed," he replied. "Where is there a man who would be able to go about with his arms and chest bared to the winter winds, to say nothing of wearing shoes that covered only his heels and toes? One day of that sort of thing in this climate would send the strongest man among us to the hospital."

"Indian Handicrafts."

Last evening at the public library Dr. Stephen B. Weeks gave a most entertaining lecture on "Indian Handicrafts" before the Arts and Handicrafts Guild. The lecture showed that the speaker was thoroughly alive to his subject and a large amount of valuable information was gathered by the members of the guild present that will aid them in their future work. Specimens of Indian work was exhibited. The lecture was greatly enjoyed.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A High School Debate.

The Philomelian Debating Society, of the Greensboro High School, held the first debate of the year yesterday afternoon. On the question "Resolved That Canada is a Better Home Than Mexico," the first section of six spoke.

Sigmund Lindau, Moses Horwitz, and John Stone championed the affirmative, while the judges decided in favor of Henry Foust, Houston Hendrix, and Julian Turner of the negative. The meeting was presided over by President Adger Forney. The question for the second section's debate will be "Resolved, That Criminal Labor Should Not Be Allowed to Compete With Free Labor."

"Revenge is sweet," quoted the Wise Guy. "So is a sugar-coated pill," replied the Simple Mug.

THE TEACHERS ON SANITATION

County Association Will Discuss Matters Pertaining to Public Health This Morning—Dr. Rankin To Make Address—Members of Medical Society To Be Present.

The meeting of the Guilford County Teachers' Association this morning will be devoted to health and sanitation and a feature will be an address by Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health. The meeting will be in the court house and will begin at 10 o'clock.

The members of the medical society have been invited to attend and one or more of the physicians will likely take part in the discussions. The teachers will join hands with the doctors in bringing about a more sanitary condition of the county through the channels of education.

After the meeting the teachers will attend the football game at Cone Park.

Family Needs Clothing.

Lieut. Miller, who is now in charge of the Salvation Army at this point, states that there is a destitute family under his observation and that clothing would be very acceptable for several members of the family. He says the mother has none too much clothing and that the children, one an eight year old girl and the others younger, are very much in need of warm clothing. Persons who have children's clothing and shoes that will not be used longer in their families are requested to write a postal card to Lieut. Miller, who will come or send for the articles and see that they go to the family mentioned.

The Origin of Grocer.

Grocer appears in Holinshed's Chronicle, 1580, as "grosser," and in other mediaeval records it is sometimes written "engrosser" and was applied to the spicers and pepperers who were wholesale dealers in various spices—that is, who dealt en gros—in large quantities, as distinguished from "regrators," who were retail dealers. The Grocers' company first adopted the word grocer in 1373, when the spicers and pepperers allied themselves into a single corporation.—London Express.

WORK FOR THE Y. W. C. A. OUTLINED

Also a Review of Past Work Given At Annual Reception in Association Rooms Last Evening—An Enjoyable Social Occasion and Delightful Music.

At the annual reception of the Young Women's Christian Association last evening in the association rooms the work of the past year was reviewed by the secretary, Miss Cain, and an outline of the work for the coming year was given. Several classes will be organized shortly and a number registered for the classes last evening.

But the occasion was more of a social event, planned for the purpose of bringing the members in closer touch with each other and to interest other ladies in the association work. A large number of ladies were in attendance and the hours were enjoyed to the fullest extent.

The social features of the evening were under the supervision of Mrs. W. B. Vaught and Miss Mary Jones, who left nothing undone that could add to the pleasure of those present. A conversational game, which proved to be a first rate mirth provoker, was followed by musical selections by Misses Marguerite Cartland and Florence Cain. Refreshments were served.

The outline of the work for the coming year will be given in tomorrow's Telegram.

Easy Way to Get A Pair of Shoes

Coble & Mebane agree to give a pair of their shoes free to the man or woman who will write them the best letter of criticism on their very attractive advertisements which are appearing every Friday in this paper. Coble & Mebane are large advertisers, and they really want to get the benefit of your judgement as to what style of advertising is the most effective, and for this reason are offering this pair of shoes as a premium for the best written letter in regard to their advertising campaign.

You are to select one of their advertisements (the one you think is the best) and write a letter stating why you think this particular advertisement is the most effective. All of the letters received will be submitted to a competent committee, who will decide as to which is the best letter, and the name of the winner in this contest will be found in this paper on December 24th, and the shoes will be delivered on Christmas Day. All letters must be addressed to Coble & Mebane and must be mailed on or before the 20th of December.

Look for the large ad. every Friday. This morning it is found on page 7. Cut it out and keep it so that you can compare it with subsequent ads. Fri. tf.

"He's All Right; He Has Money in the Bank"

How many times has each of us heard this or similar expression! If we go around much we hear it nearly every day. And yet so few of us really take it to heart.

If a young man gets into trouble, a bank account will pull him out. If he gets sick or injured it will pay the doctor's or druggist's bills. If he wants to buy a few shares of stock in the Company for which he works, and thereby strengthen his position, he can do it. All these things, and a hundred more, can be done with a snug bank account—but one must SAVE in order to have that account.

Better start today and save your money. We pay interest at the rate of 4 per cent, and assure the absolute safety of every dollar deposited here.

They're overworked—can't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

They're getting worse every minute. Will you help them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair.

Will cure any form of kidney trouble.

Mrs. Alice Hanes, 614 Liberty Street, Winston-Salem, N. C., says: "Some years ago I suffered a great deal from kidney trouble. I had severe pains across the small of my back, accompanied by dull, miserable headaches and the kidney secretions were also iregular in passage, plainly denoting that my kidneys were at fault. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed with the good reports concerning them that I procured a box and began their use. They helped me at once and I am now almost enteirely free from the pain in my back. My kidneys are also much stronger and my condition has improved in every way."

A LOVER OF FLOWERS.

In Gratifying Invalid Wife Poor Man Founded a Fortune.

St. Joseph Gazette.

The love for a flower of an invalid Missouri woman has resulted in the establishment of an industry which keeps scores of people employed and the sales for which amount to more than a third of a million dollars a year.

A plain Missouri farmer, almost penniless, founded the industry, which made him the best-known resident in Cass county and which enabled him not only to distribute flowers among the poor, but which gave him an income which he expended largely in benevolent work.

The latest reports from Jefferson City of nursery products of the State includes flowers, and shows that Cass county shipped last year nearly 800,000 pounds of flowers, worth nearly $400,000.

About 40 years ago G. M. Kellogg went to Pleasant Hill, Mo., with an old wagon and horse and his invalid wife. He was almost penniless. He decided to remain near the little town. His wife could do but little work. To please her he planted a flower bed. The roses and the carnations bloomed and spread their perfume around the cottage of the Kelloggs. They were greatly admired Some persons were found willing to pay for the flowers cut into bouquets.

This put the idea of raising flowers for profit into the brain of Kellogg. He met with success almost from the first. Before long he had an acre under glass, and when he died a few years ago he had the largest greenhouses west of the Mississippi, with immense sales. And the business continues to grow.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Where Abraham Fished.

Mrs. Victoria de Bunsen in "The Soul of a Turk" relates a legend concerning Abraham which will be new to many readers. She learned of it while at Edessa, the traditional Ur of the Chaldees. She was shown there a large oblong tank of water so filled with fishes resting just below the surface of the water that their fins and backs seemed almost wedged together so as to form "an almost solid layer of silvery life."

"The guardian of the mosque throws some meal into the water, and the fish jump high to catch it, a great living pyramid, of which those which jump the highest form the pinnacle. The tradition is that Abraham as a child fished in the tank; hence the fish were considered sacred. No single one has been caught or killed to this day. Indeed, death would overtake the man who transgressed this law."

Protection From Lightning.

Sir Oliver Lodge stated that the problem of securing protection from lightning consisted in finding the best method of dissipating the enormous energy of the flash, but that it was not wise to get rid of the energy too quickly. A thin iron wire is considered the best lightning conductor from the electrical point of view, but it is almost impossible to protect a building from lightning unless it is completely enveloped in a metal cage. It is by no means true that a building is safe when provided with a conductor reaching up to the highest part of the building.

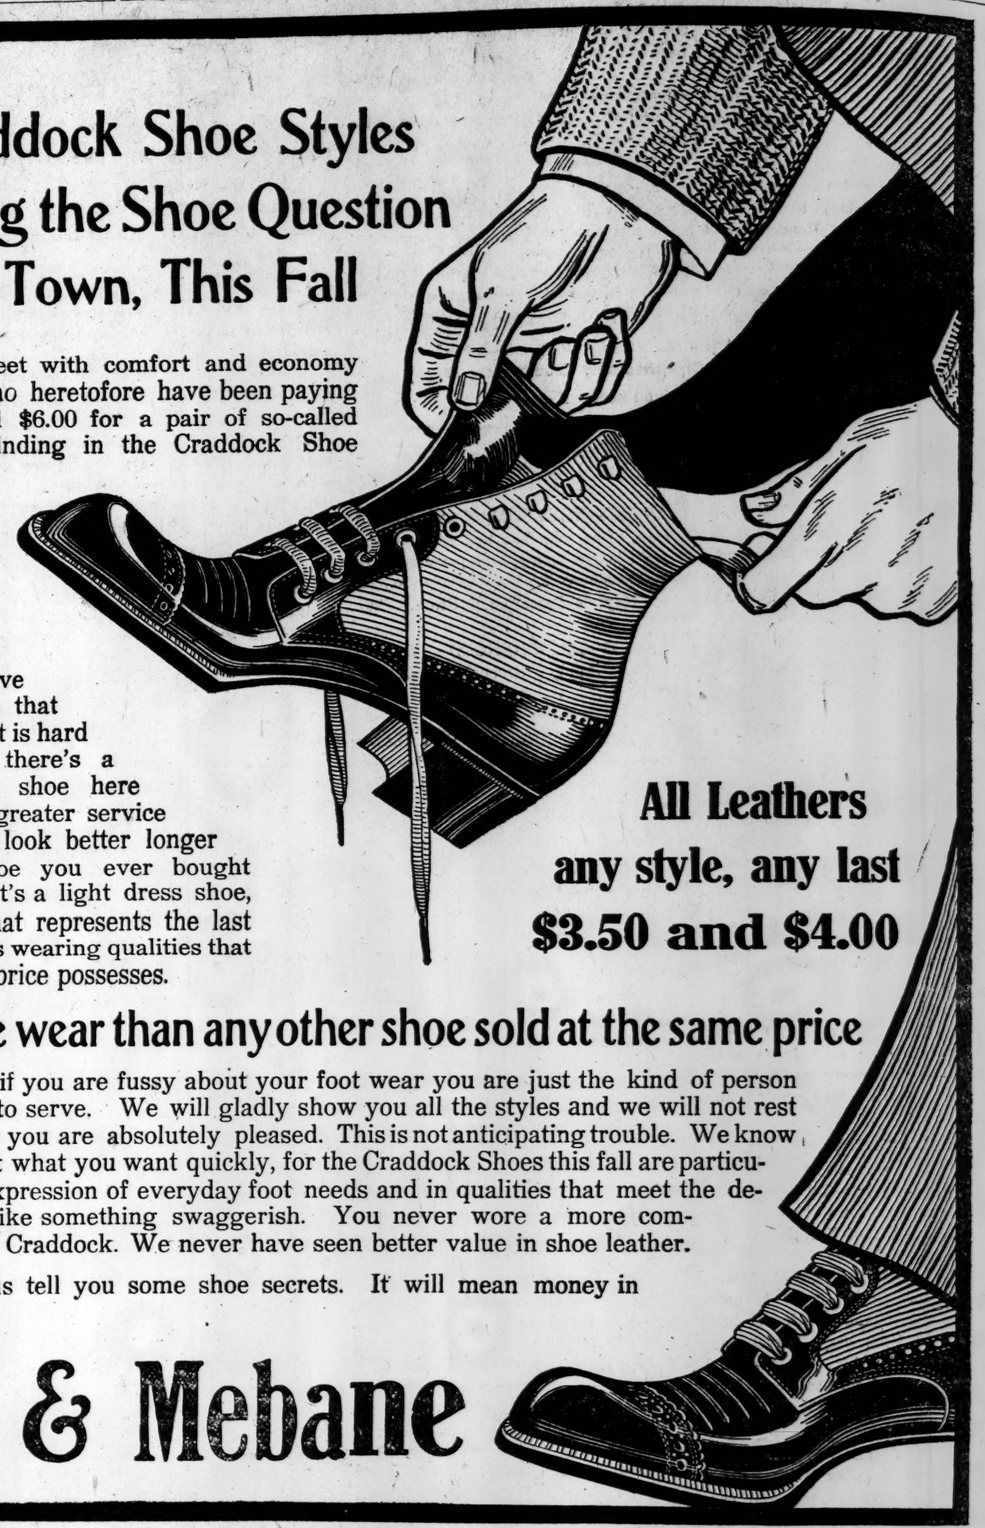
Our Craddock Shoe Styles Are Settling the Shoe Question In This Town, This Fall



We are fitting feet with comfort and economy every day. Men who heretofore have been paying the usual $5.00 and $6.00 for a pair of so-called stylish shoes are finding in the Craddock Shoe tasteful dressiness, more wear and greater comfort at $3.50 and $4.00.

Whatever use you will put those shoes to that you have in mind, we have a pair of Craddocks that match your needs. If it is hard everyday service, there's a Craddock everyday shoe here that will give you greater service for hard wear and look better longer than any other shoe you ever bought for the purpose. If it's a light dress shoe, there's a Craddock that represents the last word on style and has wearing qualities that no other shoe at the price possesses.

All Leathers
any style, any last
$3.50 and $4.00

30 days more wear than any other shoe sold at the same price

One word more—if you are fussy about your foot wear you are just the kind of person we like particularly to serve. We will gladly show you all the styles and we will not rest satisfied till we know you are absolutely pleased. This is not anticipating trouble. We know that you will find just what you want quickly, for the Craddock Shoes this fall are particularly happy in the expression of everyday foot needs and in qualities that meet the demands of those who like something swaggerish. You never wore a more comfortable shoe than the Craddock. We never have seen better value in shoe leather.

Come in and let us tell you some shoe secrets. It will mean money in your pocket.

The Girl Who Lives Alone

whether she attends college or goes to business, needs the Perfection Oil Heater. It will heat a cold, cheerless boarding house or dormitory room and make it livable. It is always a ready help in the many things women do for themselves in their rooms. With the damper top opened it will heat water for tea or cocoa; it will dry the small articles that a woman prefers to wash herself in her own room. It will quickly heat an iron or curling tongs; quickly dry wet shoes or skirts—an ever ready help for the woman who lives alone, dependent on her own resources. The is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. It will burn nine hours with one filling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless; has a cool handle and a damper top.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

CONVALESCENTS

After a long wasting illness, convalescents require nourishing food that will not overtax the digestive functions,—and in the way of a strength-restoring and vitality-making tonic, we know of nothing that equals Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil).

Vinol creates an appetite, reestablishes good digestion and helps the daily food to make rich blood, form flesh, strong muscles and impart new life and vitality to every organ in the body. We ask those who need a strength and flesh building tonic restorative to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that if it does not help them we will refund their money without question. Worms

"Cascarets are certainly fine. I gave a friend one when the doctor was treating him for cancer of the stomach. The next morning he passed four pieces of a tape worm. He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape-worm 45 feet long. It was Mr. Matt Freck, of Millersburg, Dauphin Co., Pa. I am quite a worker for Cascarets. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood." Chas. E. Condon, Lewiston, Pa., (Mifflin Co.)

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 921

KING OF THE METALS.

The Importance of Iron to the Electrical Industry.

The very root of the electrical industry is iron. Without iron it is doubtful if the larger generators and the mighty motors could be built, for the powerful magnets upon which these inventions depend for their power are all made of soft iron either in the form of thin plates or long wires covered with insulation.

Nearly every one is familiar with the common horseshoe magnet, which is but a piece of steel bent in the shape of a horseshoe and charged with magnetism. When a steel bar of this shape is rubbed against another magnet it is "charged" and will remain so for a long time. The magnets used in electrical machinery are of the induction type—that is, the magnetism vanishes just as soon as the current is taken away from them. If you wind a long insulated wire tightly around a soft iron core and send through this wire a weak current of electricity the core will be instantly possessed of strong magnetic qualities. This fact is the basis of all electric motors and generators. The field coils are usually made of a soft iron core wound with yards and yards of insulated wire. When the current is sent through this wire the soft iron core is turned into a powerful maguet, and this magnetic power is used to drive motors or to generate more electricity.—Electrical Bulletin.

Hexamethylenetetramine.

Is the name of a German chemical, one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and anti-septic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy promptly at the first sign of kidney trouble and avoid a serious malady. Howard Gardner.

He Forgot the Salt.

"How did Bligins come to be so mistaken about his political popularity?"

"Too credulous. He thinks a lot of men really mean it every time they sing 'For He's a Jolly Good Fellow.'"—Washington Star.

Boys you have a chance now to win the bicycle. One half of the Mother's Joy has been sold, at the Greensboro Drug Co. We are going to give two watches also, one to the next highest boy's sales, and one to the third highest, and the bicycle to the highest. Greensboro Drug Co.

Mrs. Newlywed—"Don't you just love girl babies, Mr. Singleton?" Mr. Singleton—"Yes, very much indeed—er—when they get to be about 18."

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

Many a young fellow is so constituted that a girl couldn't even dampen his ardor by throwing him overboard.

THE TEST OF A GREAT SOUL

To Live Greatly is to Care Greatly for Many Things in Life.

Out for a stroll one beautiful Sabbath morning in October, when in our Northern States there is a soft snap in the sunlight and a warm coolness in the air, a fine, scholarly-looking man chanced to pass a church as the contralto was singing,

Hark! hark! my soul,
Angelic songs are swelling.

The man stopped. Something in him stirred as the waves of sound floated out through the half-open window, and when the choir joined the contralto and carried the music up—up— to the splendid climax, the man became conscious of emotions he had not experienced for years. He had gotten out of the way of going to church.

Whe nthe music stopped, he resumed his stroll, but not the train of thought interrupted by the music.

He recalled that as he stood there a man and woman, absorbed in animated conversation, passed apparently without hearing the music.

Why was he appealed to and not these others?

He was rather pleased with himself that he had been appealed to by the beautiful music.

He was rather sorry for the others that they had not been appealed to.

It argued a larger capacity in him.

Is a man who doesn't care for music less a man? He felt quite sure of it.

Isn't it a test of a big soul—to care much for many things? He was sure of it.

He thought of his children.

If he wished to develop them along big lines, must he not put them in the way of caring for many things—books, music, science, art, history, humanity?

The logic was plain.

To live greatly is to care greatly.—Erman J. Ridgway in the Delineator.

Identified.

William M. Chase, the artist, was a picturesque figure, dressing in clothes that had a certain originality, though they conformed more or less to the prevailing fashions. On one occasion Chase on his way home stepped into a little wine shop and ordered a jug of claret of a special brand sent to his house. The lad who brought it came to the front door an hour afterward, when the artist had already arrived. "Some wine," he said curtly. The maid, knowing there was yet plenty in the cellar and believing the lad had made a mistake, said she was sure it was not for that house and did the boy remember the name of the man who ordered it. The boy didn't. "Then," said the servant, "you've come to the wrong place; we never ordered wine!" At this moment the boy spied Chase's famous hat on the hall table. "Say," he asked, "does that hat live here?" "Yes," said the amused maid. "Then," said the boy triumphantly, "here's where the wine belongs!"—Argonaut.

The weaker a man is the stronger his habits grow on him.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

THE STATE LIBRARY

Report of Librarian Sherrill Shows That Many Volumes Have Been Added to Shelves.

Raleigh, Nov. 11.—State Librarian Miles O. Sherrill in his biennial report to Governor Kitchin and the approaching General Assembly makes a showing of 40,515 volumes on the shelves—a gain of 1,635 books and 320 pamphlets during the past two years. The library now comprises 31,027 regular library volumes, 5,609 government documents, 2,335 bound newspapers and 1,344 bound magazines. The volumes in the library have been thoroughly recatalogued under the direction of the secretary of the State Library Commission, the index of authors, titles and subjects being grouped under one alphabetical list instead of the erstwhile simple list as to authors and title list. The librarian repeats his warning of the constant increase of destruction of the libraries and state documents by fire in the old and poorly appointed building now occupied and appeals for fireproof quarters and more adequate protection for the many priceless literary and documentary treasures comprised in the books and documents of which he is in charge. There have been added to the collection of portraits of prominent North Carolinians since the last report portraits of Col. J. F. Armfield, Statesville; William Sheppard Ashe, Wilmington; Thomas M. Pittman, Henderson; Council Wooten, Lenoir county.

Be sure you are right, and then prove it.

These are both valuable pieces of property and will steadily increase in value. Terms on the Lewis street property: 1-3 cash. On the Buchanan street property: 1-2 cash. S. S. Brown. 2t and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

Many People Do Not Understand

just what a Trust Company is, and to those we will say that the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company can be your banker, receiving your money subject to check or on certificate of deposit. It can receive your interest on any securities you may hold. It can be your general financial agent; manage your property; collect your rents and your interest. It can be your executor or administrator, and can act as guardian, receiver, trustee, and, in general, give you peace of mind, absolute security and the combined wisdom of a corps of experienced business men and all at a cost often less than an individual would undertake to do the same thing. Consult us—we can interest you and save you lots of worry and annoyance.
